Who doesn't wish to be the centre of attraction?

*Who doesn't wish to live the life
to the fullest?*

*Capture a divine attraction
within yourself on the occasion of this Roop Chaturdasi!!!*

All our ancient texts have given a great emphasis on uplifting our inner soul. However, they have also laid equal emphasis in making oneself attractive, beautiful and full of confidence. The reason behind this is that only a man satisfied of all the worldly pleasures can work on the uplifting one's soul and thus attain divine blessing. In a nut shell, this human form is blessed upon us to make ourselves both physically as well as eternally beautiful.

Without any doubt, a person spends a lot of time in looking the best he or she could possibly appear. A human being tries to wear expensive clothes, jewelries, shoes and what not. A female on the other hand also prefers to apply a make up to look young and beautiful. And why do they do all these stuff? Just to look beautiful and feel confident so that they can remain happy in life. A lot of texts have mentioned a lot about female beauty but very rare books are there in which a male beauty is discussed. Parshuram Tantra is one such text which speaks about both male as well female beauty.

This text mentions that the male beauty is defined by courage, knowledge, confidence, to be able to win over adverse situation etc. His physique should consist of long hands, broad shoulders, long and strong built, captivating eyes and along with all these a strong determination to face any difficult situation. He should possess such a mesmerizing physique to attract every woman towards him. Any man can obtain such a beauty performing this sadhana.

On the other hand this text also speaks highly about the female beauty. It mentions that a woman should possess the beauty which should be comparable to a fresh rose flower. She should have a slim and well toned body, should possess a beautiful and attractive face, should have fair complexion, well shaped breasts and a waist which could be encircled within the fist. Any man should forget everything just by a mere glimpse of such a woman and everyone wishes to be the partner of such a beauty. All these are traits can be attained by a woman by accomplishing this Rati Kaamdev Sadhana.

Without any doubt, most of us don't pass these demarcation lines and thus we are left with lots of dissatisfaction in life. Every person wishes to have a beautiful partner and without any doubt, it is the basic desire of every one. However, it is also equally essential that both the partners should complement each other. If a man possesses many of the above mentioned traits and the woman doesn't then the woman will always feel inferior and they won't be able to have a happy life. The same is true if a woman possesses many of the traits of a beautiful woman but the man lags behind, then also dissatisfaction is bound to follow.

If you are also facing any such issue in life, then this sadhana is a boon for you. On one hand, it grants beauty to the person and on the other hand it brings positive feelings and a positive outlook towards life. The person starts feeling confident and thus changes his or her attitude towards life. Thus this sadhana can also be practiced by those individuals who have lost their hopes and desires in life, for whom life is a burden and for those who want to make the best out of their lives.
