

Shravan Month

26 July to 16 Aug

Swarn Khappar Diksha Gain Enormous Wealth

Ravana was born to a great sage Vishrava and his wife, the Asura princess Kaikeshi. Ravana's grandfather on his father's side, the sage Pulastya, was one of the ten Prajapatis or mind-born sons of Brahma and one of the Saptarishi (Seven Great Sages Rishi). Ravana was a great personality right from his childhood.

When he was just 5 years old, one day his father, Vishrava, handed him a bowl and asked him to go to the nearby village and beg for his livelihood. Listening to the words of his father, Ravana refused by saying, “Why shall I beg before others?”

To this, Vishrava told him that they were Brahmins and Brahmins live their life on begging Ravana said bluntly, “Brahmins beg only because they don't have pride. I am not going to beg before anyone.”

Listening to such arrogant words from his 5 years old son, Vishrava got infuriated and asked the little boy to get out of his hermitage saying that he will not feed Ravana just like that.

Ravana, being a child with high virtues, left the hermitage at once and straightway went to his grandfather, Pulatsya. He touched Pulatsya's feet with tears in his eyes. The grandfather was delighted to see his grandson. However, the tears in the eyes of a small boy made him a little bit uncomfortable. He asked, “My son, Ravana, what is the issue? Are you fine?”

Ravana replied, “Today father asked me to beg and I refused and due to this reason he asked me to get out of the hermitage.”

Pulatsya asked, “But why did you refuse to beg? All the Brahmins beg for their living.”

Ravana replied, “I am never going to beg before anyone. My consciousness doesn't allow me to do that.”

Pulatsya saw a spark in the eyes of the small child. He was able to make out that this child is going to make a big impression for himself in the future.

Ravana then asked, “Grandfather! Isn't there a way by which I can become extremely rich in life? I don't want to beg before anyone, not even Goddess Lakshmi. You are among the greatest sages. I am here to seek your guidance.”

Pulatsya took a deep look in the child's eye and said, “Yes it is possible. However, you can't attain that knowledge from me as my grandson. You need to first become my disciple and serve me to get this knowledge.”

Ravana was more than pleased to hear that. At least now he was sure that there is a way out by which poverty can be removed permanently from life. He then served his Guru for next several years and then came that great day when his Guru called him.

“Ravana, I am pleased with your service. I am going to tell the way by which you can attain unending wealth in life. However, for that you will have to do a great penance and appease Lord Brahma. I am sharing the mantra by which you can appease Lord Brahma.”, said Pulatsya and gave him the divine Mantra.

Ravana left for deep jungle and started his meditation. He meditated for several years and then Lord Brahma finally appeared before him.

“Open your eyes son! I am happy with your penance. Ask for any boon.”, said Lord Brahma.

“O Great Lord! Grant me this wish that I can become wealthy in life. Share me that secret Sadhana procedure using which I can imprison Goddess Lakshmi in my home. I want to get such a control over Lakshmi that She should remain bound to stay with me no matter how I treat Her.”, said Ravana.

“O son! I can't grant you this boon as only Lord Shiva knows this secret Sadhana.”, said Lord Brahma.

Hearing these words, Ravana got disheartened. He thought that all his penance went in vain. Reading Ravana's mind, Lord Brahma continued further, “However, I can tell you that secret mantra by which you will be able to please Lord Shiva and get this boon.”

Then Lord Brahma gave the secret mantra and disappeared. Ravana again started his penance with full vigor. And finally came that day when Lord Shiva was pleased with his penance and appeared before Ravana.

“Open your eyes Ravana! What is your desire, ask for any boon and I will fulfill it.”, said Lord Shiva.

“O benevolent Lord, give me that secret Sadhana by which not only I can eradicate poverty from my life but can also gain enormous wealth in life. I want to become the wealthiest person ever in the world.”, replied Ravana.

“I can't give you this boon. Ask for anything else.”, said Lord Shiva.

“Fine, then give me death! I don't want to live a life by begging before others. Rather, I will prefer to die by your hands.”, requested Ravana.

Lord Shiva thought for a moment and said, “Fine I will share you that secret Sadhana however you will have to promise me that you will never share this Sadhana with anyone.”

“I will definitely share it. I will share it with my disciples and if I won't get any disciple, I will text this Sadhana so that no one in future is forced to beg. You can think once again and rather grant me death.”, said Ravana.

Lord Shiva was moved by the determination of the child and granted him the boon. And we can look back in the history and confirm that no other king was ever wealthier than Ravana. Those kings had few gold coins, jewellery or at max a pillar of gold. However Ravana was able to make his entire kingdom with gold. He had all sorts of luxuries in life and it was all possible by the means of the divine secret Sadhana shared by Lord Shiva. This Sadhana was none other than Swarna Khappar Sadhana.

The current era is governed by wealth. There is no worse situation than when a person is under huge loan and most of his time gets spent in the troublesome thought that how he would be able to repay the loan. Without any doubt, money is the prime factor of this era and is a must to live a contented life. And considering these facts only, Gurudev is going to grant this Diksha in the holy month of Shraavan so that His disciples can get rid of all sorts of poverty in life.

Diksha Cost 2100/-